My Dear Sir,

The "Troyan Horse" came all right, and I am much pleased with it except in size. Yours of the 31st Oct., reads, "1.00 for the 12x16 size, unmounted, 3.00 for the 18x22"; whereas the picture is only 7x10^½ !! I must confess that this is quite a disappointment, as the use to which I wanted to put the photo is much hindered. Please send the 12x16 size as per yours of the 31st Oct., and advise me as to this one.

Very truly,
John Bigham.

Dear Sir

We hope that the painting by Prof. Knauß, we did ship to the Corcoran Gallery of art according to the order of Mr. Knauß has been duly received, when this letter comes to hands.

We beg by this to enclose the catalogue of our Winter-Exhibition opened at Berlin recently. Having exhibited and for sale some very prominent paintings by Achenbach, Defregger, Knauß, Wantzow and others we think that you might take an interest in seeing some photographs of those pictures and we did add them to our catalogue. We beg to appeal to Mr. E. F. Studenow of your city, who was residing in Düsseldorf many years ago now and who is paying us a visit from time to time, when he comes to Germany. He did encourage us to make you offers of prominent paintings if we had such ones for sale. We do not know, whether the Corcoran Gallery has already a painting by Defregger. Having one of his very best pictures, if not, his chef d'œuvre we beg to turn your attention to this beautiful work of art. It is the picture "Strugglers in Tirol (Austria)." You will please find the photograph of this picture enclosed; we have marked the size without frame.

and the price on the back of the photograph of this picture and of all the others. The Defregger is of course a high priced picture, we can not sell it for less than 15,000 Dollars delivered here; however, every one, who is familiar with the price of Defreggers first rate and genuine paintings will confirm that this is the actual marked price. The value of such a masterpiece is increasing and can also be got at a higher rate in some years, if altogether it can be got. We doubt that you will have a better chance to buy such a first rate painting by Defregger again.

Mr. E. F. Andrews told us last year that the Corcoran Gallery ought to have also a first rate specimen of Andreas Achenbach, our celebrated Landscape and marine painter. Having at present for sale a very good picture by this artist, representing the Port of Ostend (Belgium) we beg to enclose a photograph of it too. The picture by Van Dieen, called "The child's consolation has been painted recently - The "Old Smithy" by Knaus has been painted in his first Diisseldorf time, when he painted also the celebrated picture of the "Players at cards" which is in our Civic collection and the "Funeral in the Forest". We also beg to turn your attention to Gregor von Bochmann, beautiful picture of the Old fishmarket of Reval (Russia) and William A. Shadé, "First Love". Mr. Shadé is a native American (from Chicago) residing in Rome now. His painting has been very successful at the Berlin Jubilee Exhibition of the Royal Academy this year. We enclose also photos of Gabriele Max paintings, Starke ("Scene of Lord Byron and some other pictures). We remain dear Sir

Yours very respectfully Edward Delaval

Dear Sir:

Delay over the photogravure plates has put the Pre. no. behind. And so,
of course, the Jany no.

I wish to ask, what is the probability of the Corcoran Gallery's subscribing?

Since I wrote you before on the topic, the conditions are a little changed. That is to say, I have now only 100 complete sets (or will have, when Pre. no. is completed) of Vol. I & Vol. II of the magazine — 10
nos. The price is $10; combined with a subⁿ for 1888 (for Vol. III & Vol. IV), the price is $20⁰⁰. Terms: Cash, in advance.
If the Corcoran Library is to have ~~one~~ of the 100 sets (& as I have sold the 6 Etching-plates of Vol. I, this vol. cannot possibly be reprinted), kindly remit cheque by early mail, for I am now pushing the sale of these, to effect a clearance.

Your respy, Geo. T. Kelly, Feb.

Dear Sir:

At last I have had a few very fine impressions run off of my father's Portraits of some famousachmen, and I assure you they are very beautiful - and fitter up (coverg. etc.) in a style fit for a lady's arm or to hang the two great pieces up as companions for every day contemplation.

I am going to bring a set along to show you, and to ask your advice how I best bring them before Mr Corcoran. -

as I think they will come up to his critical satisfaction.

I have long hoped
of getting a few good Subscribers and should like to have
Mr. Garrison in the lead.

Mr Corcoran.

Dear Sir:-

Knowing how eagerly you grasp whatever opportunity that may offer to add to your collection in the Art Gallery bearing your name I take the liberty to call your attention to several finely executed paintings now on exhibition at Schreiber & Sons 8 May & 17th St in this city. I am not in any manner interested in this connection, but give this information so that you may at least have the refusal of them.

The "Old Barn Door" by Alex Pope of Boston takes rank. Hanging on it is the outfit of a sportsman with his game, all of which are so superbly represented that any one at a glance at them — being ignorant of the presence of a painting, would pass them unnoticed farther than to have observed such things hanging ^{on something.} apparently Each article seems suspended so suspended that neither touches the door so correctly is each one shaded. The price is * 2.600. It might be sold for less. Did your health permit, it would be worth the trip to see it. It measures about 4x3 feet: has no frame.

Another about 18x14 inches frame included, price * 4.60. represents a young Mother exhibiting her new baby. When examined through a large magnifying glass, is, with its surroundings, almost life-like. Another, or two others, heads of two old people, copies of two old Venetian paintings (200 years old) are very fine, - particularly when examined through a strong magnifying glass. Price * 5.00. for both.

There are others there, among which is "Choosing the Bride".

He has a pair of carved tusks, the second in size in the world. The carving was done by Japanese, by hand. price * 6.000.

Hoping you may appreciate the motive which prompts me to write this, I will close with stating that my plan for mounting guns for Coast Defence has been recommended by the U.S. Engineers, and adopted by the military & fortification committee of Congress after many years delay to me. When my wife is discharged by her physicians, I will return to Washington to attend to my fort business. With the sincere hope that your health is entirely restored, I am very respectfully to Beverly Neenan.
